Other Updates:

In December 2025, members of the Data Trust Committee came together with the PIONEER team to reflect on and celebrate the achievements of the past year. The meeting provided an opportunity to recognise the valuable contributions made by committee members throughout the 2025 reporting period, highlighting their role in supporting the safe, secure and responsible use of health data for research and innovation. Members also discussed key milestones, shared learning, and the positive impact that their collective efforts have had in helping PIONEER deliver benefits for patients, the public and the wider healthcare community.
